Term Three 2023

Tēnā koutou,

It has been wonderful to finally see some sunshine at the end of Term 3 to brighten the soul and get our tamariki outside again. It has also been great to see our students continue to represent NIS with pride this term in things such as AIMS, speeches, Bandquest, Science Fair, Epro8, Mathex and many more.

On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank our wonderful leadership, teaching and administration teams for all your hard mahi this term – you are amazing and we appreciate all the effort and enthusiasm you bring to school each day. Thank you also to our families and whānau for your ongoing support of your child’s learning and extracurricular activities.

New building opening

The Board met on Monday night and took the opportunity to have a look through the new building – see photo below. After many years in the making, we are delighted to see it finished and looking amazing. Do come and check it out next term!

New Deputy Principal Bronwen Davidson

Further to today’s announcement, we are very pleased to welcome our new Deputy Principal Bronwen Davidson who is joining the school in 2024. The Board supported the Principal team through the appointment process and we know Bronwen will be a fantastic addition to the team.

Other things this term

The Health and Safety committee have been doing a thorough review of all our Education Outside the Classroom policies and procedures, something many schools have been doing recently. We are a dedicated group of current and alumni parents, passionate about Northcote Intermediate and tasked with governing the school - supporting our Principal Phil Muir and his team in their management of the school's staff, students, finances, property and much more. The NIS Board is also focused on upholding our school values of respect - for ourselves, others, and the environment – and pursuing the school's vision and mission to “empower, learn, and grow together...by equipping ākonga with meaningful knowledge, FIRST skills and values.”
